Personally, I think that all of this bullshit against Microsoft is ridiculously absurd. The only reason that the company is getting sued is because other incompetent people or businesses can't compete with the best in the business. Fuck all of you, jealousy is a sin, Bill Gates started Microsoft with no believers and now he's on top of the world and everyone wants a slice of his pie....yea, more money, more problems for Mr. Gates. Leave the man and his company alone, they have done wonders for the world of technology and just because he has what everyone else doesn't assholes wanna take it away from him....Pardon the swearing, but it's just another thing that is corrupted in this whole fucked up world that isn't run by leaders, or the people, but by the necessary evil called money. It's also good that all of the matters are being handled by the ongoing joke called the justice system...you won't beat Bill Gates, he's just gonna laugh at all of you stupid fucks from his position that, no matter how much you sue him, you will never attain. Have a great day.
